HANFORD HIGH BULLETIN

Students

Congratulations to the HHS Marching band and Color guard for their recent accomplishments. On Oct. 16 at the WBA Golden State Tournament they took 2nd Place in the 2A Class and Best Percussion and Best General Effect. On Oct. 30 at the WBA Fresno State Sierra Cup Classic they took 2nd Place in the 2A Class Best Percussion. Upcoming Events include: WBA Madera Invitational on November 13 and WBA State Championships in Fresno on November 20. Best of luck band and guard as you enter your final stretch of the season. Keep up the great work!

Congratulations to Paulette Maskarino who made the cut to go to the Girls Golf So Cal Regional Championships on Wednesday, 11/10 in Murrieta, CA. She shot a 79 on Monday, Nov. 1st at the Valley Championships held at Sunnyside Country Club to advance. Good luck on Wednesday Paulette.

Due to Thursday Veteran's Day holiday, All Work Experience classes for the week of 11/8-11/12 have been cancelled. Be sure you attend classes the following week as usual.

If you like being outdoors and are looking for something different to do this summer, the Student Conservation Association has some great opportunities for high school students, age 15 to 19. You can gain hands-on conservation and outdoor skills during 3 to 5 week projects in parks and forests. Their tuition-free program includes an adventure trip, camping equipment and meals. Pick up information in the Career Center. Forms completed in the fall are reviewed early in their evaluation and placement process, so don't delay!

Seniors, buses for Grad Nite at Magic Mountain are filling up fast! Reserve your spot NOW with a $30 deposit. Make payment in the ASB Office during break or lunch.
