HANFORD HIGH BULLETIN

ASB Announcements

Thank you to everyone who came out and participated in Monday Night Jam.

Dress up tomorrow like a character from your favorite space or sci-fi movie. On Thursday remember to dress up as twins with your bff and then on Friday remember to wear school colors or if you're a senior sport that custom toga.

Tomorrow night, Wednesday, Homecoming fun continues with our Annual Homecoming Feed the Pups and Dance. Eat dinner with the team beginning at 6pm in Pup Plaza and stay to join us for some dancing at 7pm in the cafeteria. Families are welcome to join us for dinner in Pup Plaza. Food vendors will be Jefferson Hot Wings and Subway Sandwiches.

Seniors: Grad Night Deposits are due by November 4th. If you do not make a deposit by that date there is no guarantee there will be seats available later. Deposit amount is $55. Total cost of the trip is $115. Students will have until March to pay the full balance.

Students

Hanford High Partnership Academy is collecting donations for the Barbara Saville Shelter, Hanford's only women's and children's shelter offering a safe place free from domestic abuse and the pain of homelessness. Donations accepted in classrooms with the Saville Shelter box or in Rm. 407. More information about how you can help can be obtained in Rm. 407. Donation drive is through 10/28.
